

Town of New Canaan
Assessor's Office

Legal Notice

2020 Personal Property Declarations

Due On or Before Monday, 11/02/2020

Town of New Canaan Assessor, Sebastian Caldarella, is reminding residents and merchants that October is the month to declare personal property with his office in the Town Hall.

The declaration is required annually by state law and a penalty will be assessed against those not filing before Monday, November 2, 2020. Per statute, the penalty increases the assessment by 25 percent.

Personal property which must be declared includes furniture, fixtures and equipment for all commercial establishments and farm animals owned by residents. Home offices used for commercial purposes must also be declared.

A copy of the declaration form can be found on the Assessor's home page under the INFORMATION & FORMS section.