When permanent stabilization is impractical then an approved temporary stabilization shall be established per the approved plan and shall have them inspected and approved by the site engineer prior to any land disturbance. Minor sediment control device location adjustment may be made in the field with the site engineer's consent.

The contractor shall construct all erosion and sediment control measures per the approved plan and shall have them inspected and approved by the site engineer prior to any land disturbance.

All runoff from disturbed areas is directed to the sediment traps and basins, and shall not remove any erosion or sediment control measures without prior permission from the site engineer.

The contractor shall ensure that all runoff from disturbed areas is directed to the sediment traps and basins, and shall not remove any erosion or sediment control measures without prior permission from the site engineer.

The contractor shall remove sediment traps and basins constructed at the time of the project shall be removed and will not be constructed at any time in the future.